

Dr. Sandeep Kumar Singh

Joint Director

sandeep.niah@gov.in +919410120601

Area of work interest

- I. Standardization and Quality testing of bacterial vaccine.
- II. Development of in-vitro methods of potency testing of vaccines.

Biography

Dr Sandeep Kumar Singh born in 1977, had graduated in Veterinary and Animal Husbandry from College of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Govind Ballabh Pant University of Agriculture and Technology Uttarakhand in year 2000. He was recipient of Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) from Indian Council of Agriculture and Research (ICAR) for Masters in Veterinary Bacteriology (2000-2002) from Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Izatnagar Bareilly.

In 2003, he joined College of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Govind Ballabh Pant University of Agriculture and Technology Uttarakhand as Assistant Professor in Veterinary Public Health. He handled research project namely: Study of prevalence of Brucellosis at IDF Nagla Pantnagar, as Principal Investigator (University funded) and Development of DNA based molecular techniques for identification of meats of different animal species as CO-PI(DBT Funded).

In 2008, he joined CCS National Institute of Animal Health Baghpat as Assistant Director. He is presently working as Joint Director. He is associated with quality control testing of bacterial vaccines and diagnostics.